This case was commenced on March 10, 2014, by the filing of a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code by The Tulving Company, Inc. ("the Debtor").

On March 21, 2014, the Court entered an Order appointing the Trustee as Chapter 11 Trustee of the Debtor's estate [Docket No. 22].

В. Relief Requested

By this Application, the Trustee seeks to employ and retain BRG as his accountants and financial advisors effective nunc pro tunc to March 21, 2014 the date upon which the Trustee requested that BRG act as his accountants and financial advisors.

Based on the complexities associated with administering this case and the estate, the Trustee has determined that he requires the assistance of a financial advisor and accountant with specialized experience in bankruptcy, fraud and taxation consulting services. Accordingly, the Trustee desires to employ BRG.

The Trustee is a member of BRG, the financial services firm he is seeking to employ. "Cause," as outlined in In re Butler Industries, Inc., 101 B.R. 194 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1989), aff'd, 114 B.R. 694 (C.D. Cal. 1990), exists in this case for the Trustee to retain the services of the firm with which he is professionally affiliated. The Trustee has determined that the retention of his own firm is necessary and appropriate to discharge his duties as Trustee and is in the best interests of the Debtor's estate, due to BRG's expertise and qualifications in performing the analyses required in this particular bankruptcy case and for the reasons enumerated herein.

BRG provides expert services, including economic and financial analyses, expert testimony, litigation support, and strategic management consulting to a range of public and private enterprises. It delivers independent expert testimony, original authoritative studies and strategic advice to legislative, judicial, regulatory and business decision makers. BRG's other services include factual and statistical analyses, report preparation and presentation and data collection. BRG employs more than 400 persons in the United States and the United Kingdom, and has been engaged by thousands of clients, including many Fortune 500 companies.

The Trustee has delineated the following terms regarding BRG's employment: (1) Nicholas

R. Troszak and David Judd are the persons at BRG who will be primarily responsible for the services provided by BRG, (2) They will supervise BRG's associates and staff working on this matter, (3) the estate will be the source of funds for compensating BRG for services and reimbursing BRG for expenses, and (4) BRG will be paid from funds of the estate for its fees and expenses for services pursuant to the same terms by which other professionals employed by the estate in this case will be paid.

The Trustee is informed and believes BRG's professionals have on many occasions performed similar services to the ones required in this case for numerous receivers, trustees, examiners and creditors' committees in other non-related cases under receivership, bankruptcy and other insolvency proceedings in the State of California and elsewhere. In addition, BRG's professionals have experience working on cases with similar fact scenarios in which they were presented with issues and performed analyses similar to the work at hand in this case.

The Trustee is further informed and believes that this employment shall aid in conserving the estate's resources. The professional services that BRG will render to the Trustee may include, but are not limited to the following:

- to assist with the operations of the Debtor, a)
- to analyze the books and records of the Debtor to investigate the status and b) values of the assets of the estate,
 - to analyze and liquidate claims against the estate, c)
- as determined appropriate and necessary, to reconstruct financial transactions of d) the Debtor,
- to complete tax work and other financial analyses that is required by the Trustee e) to properly administer the estate and conclude this case,
- to prepare Chapter 11 operating and interim reports in compliance with Office f) of the United States Trustee Guidelines,
 - to assist in the identification and pursuit of any causes of action, g)
 - to assist the Trustee in preparing the necessary income tax returns for the estate, h)
 - to communicate with taxing authorities on behalf of the estate; and i)

j) other accounting services as required by the Trustee.

C. Proposed Compensation

Subject to Court approval in accordance with section 330(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, compensation will be payable to BRG on an hourly basis, plus reimbursement of actual, necessary expenses and other charges incurred by BRG. The schedule of BRG's 2014 billing rates are as follows:

BRG has not received any retainer in contemplation of its proposed employment. However, it is contemplated that BRG will seek interim compensation during the case as permitted by sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 2016.
